

A DAY AT THE BANK

The Bank uses a “big check” when giving charities money. (Charities also get a real check since this one doesn’t fit into a deposit envelope).

The photographer says “cheese.”

Furry friends get a special treat when visiting the Bank.

Visitors don’t have to leave the car to talk to a Banker — just pull up to the window.

Money is stored in the Bank’s vault.

Store valuables and important papers in a safe deposit box.

Applying for a mortgage to buy a house.

Bank employees can be found volunteering, like helping in the park.

Bankers help neighbors with many different things including cashing checks, opening new accounts, applying for loans, and answering questions.

When the Bank is closed busy business owners use a special envelope to drop off deposits in the “night deposit.”
